

EXTRACTS FROM THE 1912 DIARY OF GRACE MACKARNESS

In 1912 only the youngest of Grace and Charlie's children, Roger, aged 17, was still at school. Margot had married Bob Booker in 1907 and they had two children; she also had a stillborn baby this year. Hugh seems to have been ill and gone on a voyage for his health. Elfie married Francis Hughes in April 1912. Guy was at Oxford. Cuthbert left for India in November, to take up a post in the Indian Forestry Service.

Cuthbert became engaged to Eileen Godfrey, eldest daughter of Dr Godfrey who lived in the house opposite. Cuthbert and Eileen told their children that they had been secretly engaged for some time before this; Eileen had to wear her engagement ring on a chain round her neck, hidden.

Cuthbert and Eileen did not marry – or see each other again - for three years after he left for India.

Aunt Jue, who died in July 1912 aged 75, was Miss Julia Sophia Mackarness, the youngest of Charlie's aunts.

Violet and Elma Godfrey were Eileen's younger sisters.

Fine but windy. Canon Romaine Hervy left at 8.25. Decorations. Presents poured in for Elfie. Elfie, C, G, Eileen & I took out plants &c. Late Evensong.

Monday 8 April

A terribly windy day. The boys went out to Staxton to see the motor trials & were out practically all day. The tables were put up in the drawingroom & servants' hall. Preparations. Elfie had a motor drive with Dr G. She paid Mr Ashby her final visit. I met Roger who arrived punctually at 3.45. Evensong. Charlie & Elfie met Francis, Geraldine Hughes & Bertha Scott. Dinner late. Putting out presents. Francis slept at the Gs.

Tuesday 9 April

Sleet & even attempts at snow showers, but it got better. Great preparations. A huge tent was put up in the garden. The band arrived & played in the diningroom. Detective Yeoman came & took charge. Reception from 3-4.30 & 4.30 to 6 (nominally). Tea in the tent. Another reception at night 8.30 to 10, nominally, but people left before 10. Rose did all the catering.

Wednesday 10 April

A day of preparations, telegrams, & arrivals. A lot of people came to see the presents before luncheon, Deighton, Mrs Horton, the sisters, Dr Godfrey &c. Flora Savery was married at 2 o'clock, the boys & I went to the Church, & Eileen too. By degrees Dr & Mrs Roland Hughes, the Rev G H & Mrs Hughes, M & May Hughes, Nell & Daisy, Hermann & Ella, 'Geoff' Lunt, Mother & Mai, arrived, the 2 last not till about 10 o'clock.

Thursday 11 April

Elfie's & Francis' wedding

A good many of the party came to the Celebration. Meals in the servants' hall. There were snow showers & it was cold, but the sun came out. A lovely wedding; Elfie & Francis very happy. Charming bridesmaids' dresses: Eileen & Violet, Geraldine Hughes & Bertha Scott, 'Geoff' Lunt best man. Photographs by Cromack. Wedding luncheon 12, & the pair left in Dr G's car & caught the 1.17, going to Marlborough for 2 nights. I went with sisters to Brigham's & to Aunt Jue's with Mother. Music at night.

MARRIAGE OF MISS E. MACKARNESS.

Much interest was centred in the marriage, which took place this (Thursday) morning, at St. Martin's Church, Scarborough, of Miss Elfred Mackarness, younger daughter of Archdeacon and Mrs. Mackarness, of St. Martin's Vicarage, to the Rev. Francis Peyton Hughes, son of the Rev. Geoffrey Hughes, of Wolstanton Vicarage, Southampton.

The service, which was largely attended, was fully choral, the musical portion being under the direction of Mr. Hylton Stewart, Mus. Bac., the organist, and the church was beautifully decorated with plants and flowers. Archdeacon Mackarness (father of the bride), the Rev. G. Hughes (father of the bridegroom), Rev. E. A. Irwin, and Rev. B. N. Keymer were the officiating clergymen.

The bride was given away by her brother (Mr. Cuthbert Mackarness). The bridesmaids were Miss Eileen Godfrey, Miss Geraldine Hughes, Miss Violet Godfrey and Miss Bertha Scott.

There were over three hundred presents. The four bridesmaids were presented by the bridegroom with Prayer-books and gold and enamel brooches. From the organist and choir of St. Martin's there was a framed photo of the clergy, organist, and choir, and from the girls at St. Margaret's Lodge a brooch.

The bride's dress was of white satin, bodice and skirt draped with Irish point lace, the gift of Miss Mackarness. Her going-away dress was a navy cloth costume, three-cornered hat in biscuit straw, turned up with navy velvet, trimmed with cerise flowers, black fur and muff.

The bridesmaids' dresses were mauve eolienne, the shade of Parma violets, trimmed with Oriental embroidery, with sashes in two shades of mauve; hats a deeper shade, trimmed with violets; bunches of violets were worn at the waist.

The bride's mother wore a gown of dark blue silk poplin, trimmed with Oriental embroidery; hat, black, trimmed with sweet peas; bouquet of pale pink carnations and white flowers.

The bride's bouquet was all white.

The bride and bridegroom left in the early afternoon for Devonshire.

fruit, which is largely in the hands of Americans.

A SCARBOROUGH WEDDING.

ARCHDEACON'S DAUGHTER MARRIES A CURATE.

MISS E. M. B. MACKARNESS AND THE REV. F. P. HUGHES.

A wedding, which aroused considerable local interest, took place at St. Martin's Church, Scarborough, to-day, the bride being Miss Elfred Mary Buchanan Mackarness, second daughter of Archdeacon Mackarness, vicar of St. Martin's, and archdeacon of the East Riding, and Mrs. Mackarness, and the bridegroom, the Rev. Francis Peyton Hughes, curate of Havant, near Portsmouth, and third son of the Rev. Geoffrey Hughes, of Woolston Vicarage, Southampton.

THE BRIDEGROOM AND BRIDE.

The church was prettily decorated, and the service was fully choral. The officiating clergy were the Archdeacon Mackarness, father of the bride, and the Rev. Geoffrey Hughes, father of the bridegroom.

The bride, who was given away by her brother (Mr. C. G. M. Mackarness), was attended by four bridesmaids—Miss Eileen Godfrey, of Scarborough, Miss Geraldine Hughes (youngest sister of the bridegroom), Miss Violet Godfrey, of Scarborough, and Miss Bertha Scott, of Havant.

The bride wore a gown of white satin, the bodice and skirt being draped with Irish point lace, the gift of Miss Mackarness. Her veil was of old net, and was worn by her mother and her sister, Mrs. Booker. She carried a bouquet of white flowers, and her ornaments consisted of a pearl star pendant, the gift of her sister, Mrs. Booker, and a diamond and pearl brooch, the gift of Mr. A. Shuttleworth.

The bridesmaids' dresses were of mauve eolienne, the shade of Parma violets. The sashes were in two shades of mauve, and the bodices were trimmed with Oriental embroidery. Their hats were of a deeper shade of mauve, and were trimmed with violets. The bridesmaids carried Prayer Books, bound in violet-coloured suede.

Mrs. Mackarness wore a gown of dark blue silk poplin, trimmed with Oriental embroidery, and a black hat, trimmed with sweet peas, while her bouquet was composed of pink carnations and lillies. The Rev. Geoffrey Lunt was best man.

The honeymoon is to be spent in Devonshire. The bride's travelling costume was of navy cloth, and a three-cornered hat of biscuit straw. There were over 300 presents. The children and mistresses at the junior school at St. Margaret's Lodge, Scarborough, presented the bride with a pearl and emerald brooch.

OTLEY COUNCILLOR'S WEDDING.

Friday 12 April

All the Hughes faction & Mother & Mai left at 8.25, Charlie & the boys seeing them off. Ella & I packed Elfie's clothes. Tonks' packers packed in the drawingroom. Nell & Daisy came to luncheon & Ella & I had a drive with them to the Cemetery & Marine drive. Ella & I paid Aunt Jue a visit. I had lumbago.

Saturday 13 April

My lumbago was better. The boys saw Hermann & Ella off at 8.25. The packers worked away. Nell & Daisy came to luncheon, & later Nell picked me up at the G F A Lodge where I went to a meeting & we drove to Wheatcroft; Charlie cycled there & we went in to the Church. Evensong. The whole of our party & Daisy, & all the Gs & some others went to see 'Bunty pulls the strings' at the Opera House & much enjoyed it.

Wednesday 17 April

Celebration at 7.45. Daisy, Miss Thompson & I went down to the Lit. Institute for the S P G Sale, & Alice Hogarth joined us there. It was briefly opened by Mrs Good. Down again in the afternoon: Charlie came later & had tea. Not well attended. Miss Brown came on for the evening. The Gs came in after dinner & we had a musical evening. Eclipse of the sun – very good.

Sunday 21 April

Glorious again. We all went to Church at 8 & 10.30. Charlie preached about the Titanic disaster & we had the Dead March. A walk before luncheon. CHS & Bob Russell came to luncheon & Capt & Mrs Walker to tea. Charlie went to Wheatcroft & Daisy & I to S. Martin's.

Tuesday 23 April

A beautiful day again. Charlie left for Beverley for his Visitation at 8.22. The boys bathed. I paid the books. Roger & I went to see Aunt Jue. Cuthbert & Guy went to the Wisers' for l.t. Calls. Evensong. The boys went with the Godfreys to a Dance (Conservative) on the Spa.

Wednesday 24 April

I went in the town for shopping & then to see Aunt Jue. The boys & Eileen went to Cornelian bay & Violet & I followed later & we all had tea. Both the dogs ran away & never came back till night when Jack woke me & I let them in about 2 o'clock. Eileen & Violet came in after dinner till 9.30 & we played Poker P.

Thursday 25 April

Celebration at 8. Matins 10.30. By the 1.17 Cuthbert, Roger & I saw Guy off for Oxford. I sat with Aunt Jue while Annie went to the dentist. Later I went to pay some visits. Charlie came home by the 6.33.

Saturday 27 April

Fine. By the 1.17 Charlie, Roger & I saw off Cuthbert for Oxford: I did jobs in the town & then went to the Committee Meeting. Roger played golf. I went to see Aunt Jue.

Friday 3 May

Charlie went to Q M S. Packing for Roger & Charlie & I saw him off for Radley at 1.17. Then I shopped & went to 178 Prospect Rd and paid Miss Little a long visit. Went to see Aunt Jue. Evensong. Eileen, Jock Lewis, Gwen Barker, Emmie Noyes, & I went to a good concert at S Nicholas Hall in aid of the Ida House.

Saturday 4 May

Charlie took opening prayers at Bramscote. I got my lettuce & parsley seeds planted at last. Committee meeting. Eileen, Violet & I went to an At Home at the Tathams', before their daughter's wedding. Later I went to see Miss Bankent & Aunt Jue. Evensong.

Tuesday 7 May

By the 8.55 Charlie & I left home, the Godfrey family coming out to wish us Goodbye. At York I saw Charlie off in the motor for Bishopthorpe before leaving for Oxford where Cuthbert & Guy met me ... Sad news of the birth of a stillborn baby boy at Eton on Monday ... Daisy & I went out between tea & dinner & called on Lady Hawkins amongst other things. Guy came to dinner.

Friday 10 May

Packing. A good account of Margot. Daisy & I went to S. Philip's before luncheon & Dr Biggs was there & showed us the new window &c. Cuthbert & Guy saw me off at 1.54 for Petersfield. Ada was out but had left a note, & Arthur came in to tea & a chat & wd have met me but I turned up by an earlier train than they expected. Ada taught me some new kinds of Patience.

Saturday 11 May

A lovely day. Ada & I went down to Petersfield for shopping & looked in on Arthur. In the afternoon Ada & I looked on at l.t. at the Club where Arthur was playing & then met Charlie by the 5.16. Charlie & Arthur had a cycle ride. I sat out & read. I had a cold. Patience.

Tuesday 14 May

I was busy most of the morning working at an evening bodice sent by Miss Marshall unwearable: also packing. Arther came back. By the 5.16 Arthur saw us off for Havant where Francis & Elfie met us. We slept at the 'Bear' but spent our time at 10 Fairfield – a very nice house – where F & E have made good use of their wedding presents.

Thursday 16 May

We went to Church at 8 & 11. I helped Elfie clean silver. Charlie gave F & E a chair for the study. In the afternoon we had a delightful expedition to Chichester, Charlie & F bicycling one way. We went to Evensong at the Cathedral, & after tea went over some charming old almshouses & met Canon Masters the chaplain. Mr Taylor came in in the evening. E & I played Patience.

Friday 17 May

After breakfast I went back to the Bear & packed & then shopped with Elfie. Finally F & E saw us off at 12 o'clock for our last visit to Knoyle. We got to Semley at 3.47 & I drove up & Charlie had a cycle ride on his way. Mother & sisters were at Bournemouth & only Father at home. Mr & Mrs Lewis of Fonthill called & had tea. Father took us round the garden. Mother & sisters came back soon after our dinner.

Tuesday 21 May

Sisters & I did some more sorting in the night nursery. In the afternoon everyone went in the parish, Beatrice & I together, & then she & I – in rain – burnt a lot of old things in a bonfire. Dorothy Carleton came to tea. Mother & I played Colorito. Reading & Poker P. in the evening.

Saturday 25 May

By the 10.32 I went down to Sherborne & was met by Elsie & Michael. Charlie turned up by a later train & we were in at luncheon with the boys at Lyon House when he arrived. Theodore & Elsie took us over the house after luncheon. We left at 3.2 & hoped to meet Reggie at Templecombe but he missed his connection. Cuthbert & Guy had arrived by the time we got home, & Cuthbert drove the pony carriage down & met Reggie by the next train. Mai had her band practice at night & we went to listen.

Monday 27 May

Lovely. Cuthbert & Guy went off by the milk train, sisters nobly getting up & seeing them off. I helped sort out library books in the schoolroom. Father, Mother & I had a drive in the afternoon round by Fonthill & to Linley Mill. Mr & Mrs Noel & Miss Crealock came to tea.

Tuesday 28 May

Reggie went to Gillingham by the 10.32 on business for Father. Mai & I paid a few village visits. Mother & I drove out in the afternoon & did some parochial calls. After tea Mai beat me at croquet. I helped a little at a bonfire in the field. Colorito & Poker P. A delightfully warm day.

Thursday 30 May

Reggie left by the 9.31. A beautiful day. The Club people came up between 11.30 & 12 & escorted Father, Charlie, & Mr Noel to Church. C & I sat with Miss Colson in the Knoyle House seat. Afterwards Father & Mr Noel were marched up again, & then – with Mr Williams, who had come from Chilmark – went to the School for the dinner. Charlie & I went to Clouds & had a very pleasant luncheon with Mrs Wyndham, Miss Preston (her niece) & Miss Borrow (her secretary). B & I went to see Miss Minns. More looking through things & then the bonfire.

Saturday 1 June

I helped turn out & sort the contents of one of the hall chests. Mother, sisters & I drove to Mere in the afternoon & looked at patterns of material for the drawingroom furniture covers. Showery. I went to the Nisbecks' & Willy Snooks'. Helped with the bonfire. Colorito with Mother. Poker P with Father & Mother. Hugh was to start in the Zeeland. [A Google search reveals that the Zeeland sailed from Antwerp to New York.]

Tuesday 4 June

A lot of rain during the day. I helped sort a lot of things both morning & afternoon, & finally Beatrice, Mai & I had a bonfire & got rid of a lot of things. Mr & Mrs Shorland of Tovant came to dinner for Mai to hand over G F S [Girls Friendly Society?] Sick Fund things to her. Mai had a delightful present from the Choral Society & String Band – a gunmetal watch & little bow to fasten it on.

Wednesday 5 June

Packing. Mrs Wyndham & Lady Elcho came to say goodbye before the latter left – to motor back to London with Mr Balfour. I helped a little with turning out in the smoking room. About 12.15 we left the beloved old house: it was horrid going. Mai came as far as Mrs Cross' with us. We left at 12.51, went to see Emmie Walters during a wait at Salisbury, had a short walk at B'stoke, & arrived at Windsor at 5.55. Elfie was at Eton to our great delight: F was away, so Margot sent for her.

Thursday 6 June

M had breakfast in bed(room), but soon came down. Charlie went to London for 2 meetings. Elfie went out with Nurse & the children & then we 3 sat out till the children went to bed: John can walk very well now, & talk too. I saw Elfie off in the afternoon, & then had a short walk. Charlie had a ride after he came back. Mr Brinton & a cousin came in. We sat in the study after dinner.

Friday 7 June

Margot came down to breakfast. It came on to rain, so we M & I - & the children sat up in the study with a fire, being driven out of the drawingroom by the piano tuner. Mrs McNab came in, & - in the afternoon – Molly Evans. Charlie & I had a walk before tea & went up to the Terrace of Windsor Castle. The children marched so prettily & Mary sang very sweetly: John, too, finished off lines of nursery rhymes very well. Then Mr Neiles dined & he taught me a good new Patience.

Monday 10 June

Heard that Hugh's ship, the Zeeland, is expected at 9 tomorrow morning. Charlie had a wire from Dr Cuff with a bad account of Aunt Jue so went off home at once.

Margot & I went to Caley's in the afternoon. After tea we had the children in the garden.

Tuesday 11 June

I went to Church at 7.15. Lovely. Margot & I went to Windsor & I left at 11.53 for Paddington. Then by taxi to Charing X where I eventually met Hugh safely. I was introduced to Dr Birckhead. H & I went to 21 Montpelier Square: F away for the night ( & Amy as I knew) but Mary the housemaid looked after us. H went to send his heavy luggage home, & I had tea & an egg. Talk with H who is the better for the voyage but not well. Finally he saw me off at 5.45.

Wednesday 12 June

Molly Evans came to draw the 2 children. Margot & I went to the Cemetery & put flowers in the cross on the little baby's grave. Much relieved to get a wire saying Dr Birckhead would come next day to luncheon. Rain came on. I played with the children in the nursery. Mrs Heygate called & had tea. Bob & I had a walk after the children went to bed.

Thursday 13 June

Dr Birckhead came to luncheon & talked very fully & frankly to Margot & me about Hugh to whom he has been very kind. Margot, Nanny & the children & I drove to Burnham Beeches & Bob & 2 boys, Houston & MacKewan, bicycled: we had tea at Macro's in the garden. Charlie wired to say he was going to Oxford for 2 nights.

Saturday 15 June

Charlie wrote to say that Hugh was going home with him that day, so I shortened my visit & went too, joining them both at King's C, Charlie having been to see Dr Birckhead. Home safely but the house cleaning was not all done. Charlie went to see Aunt Jue.

Sunday 16 June

Some rain but it cleared. Dr Godfrey came & thoroughly examined Hugh & considered that he need not be operated on at present at any rate. H came to Matins & Evensong with me. He & Mrs Godfrey & Eileen went for a dog walk & I went to see Aunt Jue & found her much changed. CHS came to tea. H went to see Aunt Jue in the afternoon.

Monday 1st July

Charlie went up to Q M S &c to say goodbye to the Old Girls, & then to see Aunt Jue. He went to Hull & Ena left by the same train. I went to Mr Ashby's twice. I went to see Aunt Jue. My At Home day: we were able to be out in the garden. Guy wired to say he had passed mods.

Tuesday 2 July

Very wet. Charlie was to have celebrated for Aunt Jue but she was too ill. He went to see her before going to York. I went later but she was asleep so I went after luncheon & read to her. Hugh & I meant to meet Guy at 3.48 but he turned up by an earlier train. Hugh & Guy & the Gs had strawberries at Constance Twiss'. Evensong. Music after dinner.

Saturday 6 July

A fine morning. Charlie went to Orleton. Aunt Jue had a bad night & was weaker, I only went into her room for a minute. I went to the Committee Meeting & called on the Prestons. The boys played golf. I gardened. Guy went to see 'The Grotesques'.

Monday 8 July

Charlie went to Northallerton after going to see Aunt Jue. Except for one shower the day turned out beautiful. I did a good deal of writing for Charlie & Hugh in the course of the day. We were delighted to hear that Cuthbert had safely got through his geological exam. I went to No. 19 & had a talk with Edith & saw Aunt Jue though she was asleep. Calls. Evensong. Gardening.

Tuesday 9 July

Charlie went early to Northallerton. I paid the books. I went to No. 19 but did not see Aunt Jue who was very ill. I went to the Pageant with Archdeacon Lindsay as they had a spare ticket & I did not know if I should be able to go next day. It was an extremely pretty sight & I enjoyed it immensely. Guy went to the theatre with the Godfreys, Frasers &c. Charlie was round at No.19 till between 10.30 & 11.

Wednesday 10 July

..... Aunt Jue passed away rather before 1 o'clock in the morning ..... Charlie went round to No. 19 several times & so did I, later. Marion Beckett & her governess stayed to luncheon. Hugh & Guy went to the Pageant: also 2 of the maids. Evensong. C E T S Committee.

Friday 12 July

Early Celebration. Arthur arrived soon after 10: then Fred & Emmie Noyes. A lovely day.
