Saturday 4 January

Charlie went to York for the day. The children played hocky [sic] on the sands with Mr Roberts, Frn.v. M.* & others. Cold, in the afternoon & evening foggy. I called on Lady Cayley. Evensong. Margot, Hughie, Elfie & Cuthbert went to a dance at the Prince of Wales – given by Mrs Steble – in masks & dominos: black masks & pale blue (M) and salmon pink (E) art muslin, & red (H) & old gold (C) satin. They enjoyed it very much.

**Fraulein von Münchow, a governess*

Sunday 5 January

The 4 children who were out last night had breakfast in bed & Margot spent the day in bed as she was not very well. A cold day but fine. I went to a small tea party at the Austens'.

Tuesday 8 January

A cold day & some snow. Charlie had to go to York at 10.40 & was not home till the evening & at 7 had to go to a Sch. Board Meeting. I paid the books. I went to ask after Miss Frances Wilson & paid her a visit. Hughie, & Cuthbert (after snowballing on Oliver's Mt. with the other children – except M - & Fr v. M & Jane) joined me in West St & we paid a long visit to the Joys, Mr Joy showing us his beautiful collection of butterflies: we had tea there. Hughie went to a rehearsal at the Grammar School. Some snow.

Wednesday 9 January

Charlie went to York at 10.40. The boys went out & had some fun in snow, though it was not deep. Preparations for the parties. The little children's party began at 4.30 & lasted till 7, but they were not all gone till some time later: it went off most successfully. Mrs Godfrey & Mr Roberts were very helpful. Charlie was at tea but had go [sic] out afterwards. He had a meeting at 8. Hughie went to a Rehearsal. Margot, Fr v M & I went to Evensong. After supper M & I tidied the toy cupboards of which some of the little children had made havoc.

Saturday 12 January

A mild day. I went to the Celebration. Mr Roberts, the 5 children, Fr v M & others had a game of hocky on the sands. Hughie, Cuthbert & I went to the Edwards' about clothes for the acting & then to the town for a moustache. Evensong.

Sunday 13 January

Margot & I went to church at 8. Charlie preached in the morning & Mr Pemberton at night – Charlie going to Wheatcroft. Mr Roberts came to luncheon. Hughie & I went for a walk, Cuthbert kindly going with Guy & Fr v M to church, Roger was not quite the thing. Miss Richardson & Miss Raines dropped in to tea, & Col. Hill & Major Pollard came to supper.

Friday 18 January

A misty morning. Charlie went to school. A busy time packing. By the 1.17 train Hughie started for Marlborough., Charlie & Cuthbert seeing him off. I took Roger to Mr B M in fear & trembling but he had 2 teeth stopped without a murmur. Evensong. Margot had her girls in the evening.

Saturday 19 January

Mr Roberts took Elfie out for a bicycle ride. Margot had breakfast in bed with a cold & headache. The 3 boys went on the sands. A wet afternoon. Cuthbert, Guy & I went to tea & a good magic lantern at the Grand given by Mr Bruce & much enjoyed it. Margot & Elfie had tea & spent to the evening at the Saverys'.

We were grieved to hear the dear old Queen is very ill.

Monday 21 January

Theodore's birthday

A mild day & some rain. Tidying up in Hughie's & the Bishop's room. Mr Pemberton came to luncheon. Preparations for the Choirboys' treat. Elfie & Cuthbert went to the Godfreys' in honour of Violet's birthday. Fr v M & Margot went to tea at the Hardmans'. The Choirboys' treat went of [sic] thoroughly well: Elfie & Cuthbert stayed to the end & Guy till past 8. Mr Pemberton came in for part of the evening.

Tuesday 22 January

Dr Godfrey came to see Elfie's back & pronounced that she must lie for an hour on the back board daily & not bicycle for a time. E: C:&G came down the town with me. Meeting at Mrs Kitson's about the magazine club. ....

The dear Queen died

Meeting about Rescue work in the evening at the grammar School addressed by Mrs Pemberton. Tea & coffee afterwards in the lower school.

Saturday 26 January

Guy had spots which Dr Godfrey pronounced to be chickenpox so I isolated him in the Bishop's room & Elfie & Roger were excluded. There had been snow in the night but it turned to rain in the course of the day. I went to see various people to get a teacher for Elfie's class. Margot & Mabbie went to tea at the Cattleys'. Evensong. I sat with Guy at intervals. C & I slept with Guy in the Bishop's room.

Sunday 27 January

A furious wind. Margot & I went to Church at 8. Charlie in the morning & Mr Pemberton at night preached about the dear Queen & the Church was a sight with the people in mourning. We had the dead March in Saul after Matins & Beethoven's Funeral March after Evensong, & Chopin's as the Voluntary at night. Mr Roberts came to luncheon and came in again in the evening, Mr Bolland coming to supper. I took my boys' class in the vestry & M & E were forbidden to go to school, & poor Elfie only went to ch. in the afternoon sitting down in the chairs.

Tuesday 29 January

Snow & sleet at intervals. I moved Guy into my room. I paid the books. Read to Guy. Cuthbert has chickenpox at school! & Clara is evidently annoyed with me. I hunted about & finally got one of the Dawsons to take Margot's Toy class. Evensong.

Wednesday 30 January

A mixture of weather, frost, snow, rain, thaw & at night another fall of snow. I took Roger out for a little while. I read to Guy. A few calls. Late Evensong, & then – after a long wait, the undertaker being very late – Mrs Waterhouse's coffin was brought into church & there were some prayers, a hymn &c.

Thursday 31 January

The roads were in a very messy state as the day went on. I went to Mr B M & had two teeth stopped: Charlie went in the afternoon. I read to Guy. Evensong.

Saturday 2 February

I went to the 7.15 Celebration. A thaw ...

At 12 o'clock was held an impressive memorial service for our dear Queen. There was a large congregation of people in mourning .....

Connie Monson came to tea & stayed talking to me afterwards about Aline &c .....

Tuesday 5 February

Charlie had his Boys' Bible Class instead of Monday. Snow & sleet part of the day, but partly fine. Guy went out with the Godfreys. Fr v M, Mr Roberts, the girls & I went up to hear the King proclaimed at the Town Hall: the proclamation was inaudible where we stood in the crowd but we heard the Bishop say a prayer & heard the trumpets &c. Charlie had a wedding & after a hasty luncheon left at 1.17 for Oxford. A good G F A Meeting. In late to Evensong.

Saturday 9 February

A fine day. Guy went out morning & afternoon with the Godfreys. Mr Roberts came in after luncheon & had a photographic afternoon with Margot & Elfie, & tea with me. I paid calls. Evensong. Found Charlie safely arrived when we got in from Church. Mr Roberts came in & developed. Charlie went to the Old Town Hall in the evening & presided at a Popular Concert, got up on Temperance grounds: he was to say a few words in the middle.

Monday 11 February

Charlie had a meeting at 12 so the clergy only came in to luncheon. Guy came down & began lessons again but Rober had chickenpox & had to stay upstairs in the nurseries. I had rheumatism in my left shoulder, so got Dr Godfrey to prescribe for me. Bp Scott arrived at 3.43 & at 4.30 he & I had tea at the Vicarage to meet the Bp of Newcastle who was very friendly. Charlie had to be at the 1st part of the Children's S P G Meeting at the Grand & then went to a Sch Board Meeting before coming to the big meeting at 7.30: there was a good attendance in spite of snow: W Worsley, & the Bps of Newcastle & N China spoke. I played the hymns. Aunt J drove Bp Scott both ways & Mr Roberts walked with us & came to tea afterwards.

Friday 15 February

I went to the Celebration. Charlie went to school ....
Miss Wilson was buried in the afternoon. I went to the 1st part of the service, at S Martin's ....
I played with Roger. Calls. Charlie had his class. Evensong. Margot went to supper at Mrs Sims'.

The King & Queen opened Parliament for the 1st time.

Saturday 16 February

A thaw. I played draughts with Roger. Household business. I called on the Nunneleys. Early tea & then Fr v M the girls & I went to the Mechanics' Institute where we were joined by Mr Roberts, & heard an amusing paper by Mr Bosville on 'Why some methods of music making bore me,' followed by a short concert. Mr Roberts & M & E did a little developing. Dinner early & Charlie left for York at 8.5.

Friday 8 March

I went to the Penitential Psalms. Charlie went to school. I went to the Litany & had the pleasure of telling Mr Roberts of the appointment of his dear Bp of Stepney to London ...
We were grieved to see the death of a boy at Marlborough .....

I helped cut out work at the Lodge. Evensong. Charlie preached at the Guild Service. Elfie's cold was better & she went to her Bible class & Evensong.

Friday 15 March

I went to the Penitential Psalms & Celebration. Charlie went to school. Damp. I went to the Litany. In the afternoon I helped a little with the cutting out at the Lodge. Marjor Norris telegraphed 'Would gladly come tomorrow afternoon for Sunday if quite convenient.' Evensong. Charlie & I went to the School of Art Prizegiving in the evening, Capt Bower took the Chair & I gave away the prizes: we looked at the exhibition of drawings afterwards.

Tuesday 19 February

A blustering day with sleet or snow showers. Major Norris left by the 8.35 train. I paid the books. I went to see Willie Loxley & paid some calls. Evensong, after which Mr Roberts came in & developed with Margot & Elfie. * Clara wrote to say that Cuthbert has whooping cough! Working party at the Lodge: Charlie came in to close.

Tuesday 26 February

Some snowstorms but a good part of the day was fine. I paid the books. We were sorry to hear that Father has gout & sisters bad colds. Margot went with the Bulcote girls to Filey where they just lost a hockey match. I paid bills. Evensong. Mr Roberts came in to develop. Final working party in the evening, Aunt Jue & I read, Miss Thompson not being there: Charlie closed.

Saturday 30 February

We woke to find it raining & the snow much of it disappeared. The children went out after the rain stopped & had a good walk. Developing in the afternoon. I paid calls, & then the girls & I went to tea with Mr Roberts. Evensong. Margot went to the final working party. The 3 Godfreys came in & we played card games in which Mr Frere, when he arrived, soon joined in.

Wednesday 3 April

A milder day though a very high wind. Elfie & Eileen came to Church with me early. I went to the Litany, Psalms & Reading. In the afternoon I did some shopping. Charlie had his Confirmation Class. Guy & I went up to the station & met Hughie who arrived safely at 5.16: he won the solo singing competition. I went to the Address to Church workers &c which Mr Frere gave. We all went to the service at 7.30 when Mr Frere again preached.

Monday 8 April

The day was mostly fine though there was a heavy shower in the morning. Hughie played in a hockey match on the sands. Matins at 10.30. We had some amusing games of pingpong Mr Frere, Mr Roberts, Mabbie, F v M: M: H: G: & I. The clergy came to luncheon. Mr Frere played & sang. Cricket in the garden in which Mr Frere, Mr Roberts, Fr v M: & eventually all of us but Charlie played. Evensong & carols. Charlie & Hughie had a cycle ride. Music in the evening – Mr Frere & I played duets.

Tuesday 9 April

I went to the Celebration at 8 & to Matins at 10.30. Charlie went to the grammar School. We had a Pingpong tournament, Mr Frere, Mr Pemberton, Mr Roberts, Fr v M, M, H, E, & I, which Margot won. Mr Frere left by the 2.35, Charlie, Margot & Guy going to the station with him: his visit was delightful. I took Hughie & Elfie to see Dr Godfrey & he found Elfie's back quite straight & gave her leave to bicycle: he ordered throat paint &c for Hughie. Visits. Evensong & carols.

Wednesday 10 April

A fine day. I went to the Litany. Paid the books. Charlie, Mr Roberts, Hughie & Elfie rode to Throsenby where Charlie called on the Hebdens, & then to Scalby where they all had tea with the Cattleys. I went down to watch a hockey match on the Sands in which Margot was playing, Bulcote v Miss McCallum's girls: Bulcote won, 2 to 1. Calls. Late Evensong. Margot went early to bed with a neuralgic headache.

Cuthbert's birthday. 11

Showery. The clergy came to luncheon. Fr v M Guy & I went to Ayton by the 1.46 & walked to Forge Valley where the clergy & M H & E met us, bicycling. We picked flowers & then had tea at the cottage. Coming back Fr v M, Guy & I missed the 5.51 so took refuge with the Simpsons who were very kind & gave us dinner & we left by the 8.41 & were met at Scarborough by Charlie & Hughie: Mr Roberts & the girls had cycled out to look for us.

Tuesday 16 April

A fine day. The children & I went down the town before luncheon. Charlie had a busy day, grammar School, Baptism, Hospital &c. Calls. Evensong. Hughie went to stay with Mrs & Syndenham Moore for a day or two because of Cuthbert whom I met by the 6 o'clock train. I isolated him from the other children in case of infection from whooping cough. Ned & Arthur Austen came in at 9 o'clock for a smoke.

Thursday 18 April

I went to the Celebration.. Charlie & I went off by the 11.15 to Sewerby Hall to the Lloyd Greames' for the Bridlington Festival. Mr Savile arrived with us & Kitty & Mr Stapleton were there already. We went to both Concerts, morning & evening & much enjoyed them. The Elijah was performed in the afternoon & a Funeral March & a miscellaneous Concert in the evening, Wagner, Beethoven, Coleridge-Taylor &c. We were introduced to Mr Francis Harford who sang very well: Miss Agnes Nicholls, Mr Gregory Hast, & Mrs Burrell also sang.

Friday 19 April

Home again after a delightful time by the 9.35 – 10.25. Elfie had fallen on the stones yesterday & had slight concussion but she was better today. Hughie came with me to see Miss Roberts. She & Mr Roberts, M & E & Mr Pemberton went to the Beverley Missionary Exhibition. Eva Swayne came & had a chat in the garden. Evensong. The Beverley party got home between 1 & 2.

Tuesday 30 April

A morning of packing, paying books &c. Charlie saw Hughie off at 1.20 for Marlborough, & then I picked him up & we drove to the Parish Church for Kathleen Walker's wedding with Mr Partridge. A sea roke came on while we were in church & lasted for the rest of the day. The Bp, Charlie, & Mr Stapleton took the wedding. We went to the Reception at the Grand. Evensong. Miss Roberts came in. Mr Roberts & the girls developed. Charlie & I dined at the Grand at the Leasowe Walkers' invitation.

Wednesday, May 1

I went to the 8 o'clock celebration & to 10.30 Matins. Guy & I went down the town. The girls went to tea at the Café with Mr & Miss Roberts. I had a game of croquet with Cuthbert before going with Charlie to the Randolphs' to meet the Dean of Ely & Mrs Stubbs: I only stayed a short time & then went to a tea party at the Sissons'. The Roberts' came in & we played Ping pong. Late Evensong.

Saturday 4 May

Fr v Munchen left at 11.15 for Germany, the children seeing her off. A busy day of packing and tidying – especially in the study. Evensong. Mr Roberts & Elfie developed. I played croquet with the boys.

Monday 6 May

Charlie went to Beverley. The joyful news came of dear old Humphrey's engagement to Miss Marion Smith. A busy day. A good many people called. Packing.

Tuesday 7 May

Mr Pemberton came in to say Goodbye before taking the Celebration. Mr Roberts helped carry down the boxes: Cuthbert & Guy went in the 1st cab with Jane – who left at 8.25 – Laura & Roger in the 2nd cab: Charlie & Elfie rode up, & Margot (with her hair up) & I walked to the station, Mr Roberts coming with us as far as the bridge. We left for Knoyle at 8.35, Mrs Sims, Mabbie, & Mabel seeing us off: we came by the 3.45 from Waterloo so getting to Semley at 7.51: Charlie & Elfie rode up. Beatrice & Mai welcomed us, Father & Mother being still in Bath.

Wednesday 22 May

A beautiful day. Ella & I wrote, read, & played duets. In the afternoon we drove to Brenttor to call on some people called Neame, & in getting out to open a gate Ella strained her foot & turned quite faint. We bandaged it up first at the Post Office & then the Neames were very kind & it was properly done up there with methylated spirit & a bandage. Hermann & I played croquet before dinner.

Thursday 23 May

Another lovely day though very windy. Ella did not get up to breakfast so I read prayers. Later she got up & sat in her little room. Hermann & I drove to beyond Petertavy in the afternoon & then went down to the Tavy where he fished & I read: it was quite lovely. We had our tea by the river. Ella was better when we got back.

Sunday 2 June

Charlie & I went to S Philip's at 8 & at 11.0 to Holywell after which we wandered about in the lovely cemetery. Frank came to luncheon. Sat out in the garden. Humphrey & Marion came to tea & afterwards Charlie & Humphrey & Marion & I walked about in the garden: the fiances are thoroughly happy. Marion seems a nice little thing. Charlie, Daisy, Humphrey, & I went to Evensong at New College.

Wednesday 5 June

*A lovely day. Mother was allowed out again. Charlie, Daisy, & I went to luncheon at Ch Ch [Christ Church] with Frank: then Charlie fetched his bicycle & rode to Cuddesdon. Daisy & I shopped, called on the Randalls who were in (the ladies), & Lily Sumner who was away, & finally went to a grand party at the Ansons', All Souls', Blue Hungarian Band, Magdalen Quartette [sic], & heaps of people. (*I went to the early Celebration)

Monday 10 June

Daisy's birthday

A lovely day. Charlie & I went down to New College, & met Kit & Violet, Humphrey & Marion & Huss gave us a sumptuous luncheon in the Common Room, after which we adjourned to the garden. Then Charlie left & went for a drive with Mother & Daisy. We finally went to Somerville where V & I went to Marion's nice room: I like M very much. Mother & I went to evensong at S Philip's. Daisy & I went to a very good concert in the Town Hall: Mrs Kendal recited, amongst other things, & a Mr Irving sang very beautifully.

Wednesday 12 June

Charlie & I were driven down to the Academy & saw it very comfortably: we met Miss Skirrow, & Dr Ince. Charlie went to a meeting in the afternoon at the Nat Society, & then Min & I drove down to Westminster in spite of rain & picked him up & we did some shopping. Finally he went to see Mr Bodley.

Friday 14 June

Bernard & Geoff had their breakfast early & went off to work while we were at breakfast. Min sent me in the carriage to see Mabel Wright who was delighted to see me. After luncheon Charlie & I left, & he dropped me at Euston while he went on to Kings X en route for Scarborough. I went by a splendid train to Rugby & drove to Church St, where Violet & others played l.t. Dan & Matt were in the garden when we came back.

Wednesday 19 June

A much warmer day. Elfie played cricket in the garden with Dan. Violet & I went out before luncheon & read in the Temple Reading Room. Kit treated us all to ices after luncheon. Violet, Elfie & I played croquet & then were driven in by rain. Violet went to tea & instrumental music at the Donkins'. I presided over a tea party of Elfie, Dan, & Agatha & Hester Dewar, after which we played games. Godfrey came in. After dinner Violet & I went to the Music School for a 'Patience' Practice: I took my work & listened.

Friday 21 June

Elfie took some family groups. Packing. Violet cycled down to the station & saw Elfie & me off by the 12.50 to Scarborough: we changed at Leicester, Derby, Sheffield, & York & at York joined Margot, Guy, Roger, & Laura. Charlie met us at Scarborough & also Mabbie & Mabel. Fr v Münchow greeted us at the Vicarage, where everything looked clean, & fresh, & the garden bright & pretty: it was good to be home again.

Monday 8 July

A glorious day. Annie Simpson was over on a trip from Middlesborough & came to see us, & we had her & her fiance – Joseph Taylor - & her little niece to dinner with the maids. Mr Roberts came to luncheon. I took Roger to see Dr Godfrey. Mother & I took the 2 little boys on the sands where Roger paddled & Guy sailed his boat: Laura & Jane met them in the Holbeck Gardens & Mother & I went to Mrs Johnson's to tea. Mabel & Sybil & Mr Roberts came & sat in the garden with us. Margot went to supper with Mabbie.

Saturday 13 July

The day turned out lovely. We had a most successful Cayton Bay picnic in the afternoon, Mother, Emmie, Mrs Sims, Roger & I driving & M E G Mr Roberts, Fr v M: Mabel Ellenshaw, Katie, Sybil & Eileen walking. After tea on the shore we all paddled except Mother & Margot. Mr Roberts came in to develop in the evening.

Wednesday 17 July

It was very worrying to decide what to do for the best as to Hughie & the scarlet fever at Marlborough. A very hot day. Litany. Mother & I went to some shops, Emmie Noyes came to luncheon. In the afternoon Mother & I went to see Mr Dippie's lovely garden & he gave us tea & sent us home with beautiful flowers. We then went to a tea party at the Randolphins'. Late Evensong: Mr Williams played.

Charlie's birthday

I went to the Celebration. There was some rain for a wonder. Mr Pemberton came to luncheon. I called on Mrs Alderson Smith who gave me some lovely sweet peas. Evensong. Charlie had School Board meetings. The children had a half holiday & the little Godfreys came to tea. Fr v M Elfie, Guy, Eileen & Miss Bagnall went to see the fireworks.

Tuesday 23 July

Damp, but it cleared. I paid the books. The Archbishop of York & Lord Mountgarrett came to luncheon at 2 o'clock; Charlie, Margot & I had it with them, the rest before. At 3 was the formal dedication of Queen Margaret's: M & I drove up with the Archbishop. There were a lot of people & it went off very well. After the short service the Archbp, Lord Mountgarret, Prost Talbot, Charlie, Sir W Worsley, & Canon Body spoke. The Dean of York came back to the Vicarage & he, Charlie, & Major Norris (who arrived in our absence) smoked in the garden.

Tuesday 30 July

A very warm day. I paid the books. Charlie & the girls & Fr v M had luncheon early & then started for Stainton Dale for the School Treat. Parking. I met Hughie by the 4.28 & we had tea at Rowntree's

Café, then we sat out in the St Nicholas St Gardens & finally left at 6.15 for Mrs Carr's 1 Granville Mt Scalby. After a meal at 7 & unpacking we had a stroll & then sat out in the little garden. Then card games & bed.

Wednesday 31 July

A lovely day. Hughie & I went out & did our shopping & then went for a beautiful walk & sat on the top of a hill. In the afternoon we went on the the Scarborough road on the chance of meeting Charlie but we had had tea before he appeared on his bicycle, having waited to start the Infants' tea before leaving. We gave him a good tea before he started home again. After he left we bought a paper & had a stroll. After supper we played Ping Pong over a board in the kitchen & then had card games.

Thursday August 1

Leave came from Dr Godfrey through Charlie for us to go home tomorrow – there having been no fresh case at Marlborough since July 17. Hughie & I went out for a walk & finally read in a field. We called on the Cattleys who were very friendly & we spent the afternoon with them playing croquet, having tea &c. The girls fetched us again in the evening & we sat out & then Hughie & Judith played Ping pong & finally H & I.

Friday 2 August

Packing, & off by the 10.3 for Scarborough being seen off by 2 of the Cattleys & little Evelyn Maclagan. Elfie & Cuthbert met us & the 2 boys walked up together. It was very nice to be home again. I paid some calls in the afternoon. Evensong.

Saturday 3 August

Minnie's & Nellie's Silver Wedding Day

A warm day. Fr v Münchow went away for a holiday engagement Margot, Elfie & Guy seeing her off. Charlie, Hughie & Cuthbert bathed. The boys gardened in the afternoon. Calls, & tea at Miss Thompson's to meet Mrs Tew. Evensong. Weeding. Margot & Hughie played Ping pong.

Monday 5 August

Ella's birthday

The day kept fine. Hughie & Cuthbert bathed. I had an interview with Mrs Learoyd about Fr v M. Mr Pemberton came to luncheon. My At Home day & I had a fair number of people – out in the garden. Margot & Hughie went to Wheatcroft Cliff for l.t.: & Guy & Roger went to spend the afternoon with some children belonging to the Wises.

..... The Empress Frederick died .....

Thursday 8 August

I went to the Celebration. Hughie & Cuthbert went to the Circus, mainly at Cuthbert's expense. Elfie went with Miss Bagnall & the Godreys to an Instrumental Concert by Mis Sloman (Mrs Prior): Margot & I went for part & then came out & went to the Alderson Smiths' where Margot had some l.t. Mrs Holden (Mrs A A's sister) drove me home Margot & Mabel following later. Hughie went to see 'In the Soup' at the Spa. Very warm. We sat out late.

Friday 9 August

Charlie went up to the station with Mabel who left for Cri ccieth. Another warm day. I went into 3 weeks' mourning for the Empress Frederick. Calls in the afternoon. Evensong. Charlie went to the Sea Bathing.

Wednesday 14 August

I went to the Celebration. Preparation for our guests. A good deal of rain in the course of the day. Most of the family spent the afternoon at the Godfreys. Charlie, Hermann, Ella, Margot & I went to Ravenscar where we imbibed some good moor air & had a damp time: we came back by the same train as Lionel Stanhope. After tea he, Ella, Margot, & I played croquet. Evensong. Music. Lionel arrived safely by the 9.41. Hughie slept in Cuthbert's bed & Cuthbert in our room.

Thursday 15 August

A damp morning. We had a Ping pong tournament. All the party except Charlie, Ella, Margot & I went to the Circus: we 4 went to the Hospital & Miss Richardson showed us over it, including the new part. We went to tea at the Lodge. Evensong. Some rain. All of us but Charlie, Hughie (who had a cold) & - of course - Roger went on the sands & had an excellent view of the fireworks which were specially good. Elfie slept at the Godfreys'.

Wednesday 21 August

Dr Taylor came to see Roger & said - as Dr Godfrey had done - that he ought to be operated on at once, so we telegraphed to Dr Littlewood, Park Square & made an appointment: Dr Taylor was very kind & so was Dr Godfrey who came in later. Elfie & Hughie went to the L. T. tournament & tea with Mr Roberts. Packing. A lovely day. Late Evensong.

Lionel's birthday

By the 8.30 darling Roger & I came to Leeds, Charlie seeing us off. We went to Mr Littlewood, Park Square, & he arranged to operate today, telegraphed to C & sent us to a Nursing Home, Spring House, Caledonian Rd. Roger & I went out & he bought some toys. Charlie arrived & about 3.20 we saw our darling put off under chloroform & left him with the doctors & nurses: he was kept off under ether & the operation lasted 45 minutes & then the dressing took some time: it was a tubercular growth. C & I went out after seeing R asleep & then C went to the Swaynes & I sat with R & the nurse. R roused from time to time & fretted a little over the bandages or was sick. C came again during the evening. I was not allowed to sleep with R which tried him a good deal.

Saturday 24 August

A day of close attendance on my little Roger reading to him & playing with him. I got out a little in the garden mostly when he had settled down for the night. Mr Littlewood was quite satisfied with him. It seemed a very long day. Reading and Patience. Roger had a good night.

Wednesday 28 August

Some showers at intervals. Mr Littlewood came early & dressed Roger's neck: he was much pleased with the way it was getting on. He praised him for being a good boy when he took out two of the stitches. After luncheon Roger got up & was dressed & we went out in the garden till rain drove us in. Robin came & paid us a nice visit. Later Roger & I went out in the streets for a little. Back to bed.

Thursday 29 August

Roger got up to breakfast. Packing. Mr Littlewood paid his final visit. By the 11.40 Roger & I started for home, Mrs Williamson seeing us off. We got to Scarborough very late & found Charlie at the station & the 3 boys well down the road: we had a rapturous welcome with flags flying. Alfred Hacking was at home: he & Margot & I walked to the Castle in the afternoon. Charlie went to Hull by the 5.20 for the night. Games in the evening.

Friday 30 August

A good deal of rain in the course of the day. Margot had a bad headache so got up late & went to bed early. Alfred Hacking left at 11.45. Margot & I went to look up one of my GFS girls. Evensong - in late. Charlie went to the Sea Bathing. We pulled Roger about in the mailcart after tea & I read to him.

Wednesday 4 September

Charlie took the Celebration to which I went. Charlie gave me a delightful green wooden chair, & the children a spade, rake &c. I went to the Litany & in the Lodge, & played croquet with Chris & Margot.

Preparations. Charlie & I paid calls in vain on the Lefroys & Londesboroughs. The children & the Godfreys did some very good tableaux to an admiring audience – Margot helped with the dressing &c, & Margot went to bed early. Cards with Hughie & Chris.

Friday 6 October

Rather dull. Dr Godfrey came to see Roger & his bandage was finally taken off: he only now has a pad of sort of woolly stuff fastened with strips of plaister & a silk handkerchief. Litany. Chris, Cuthbert, the girls & I went for a walk on the sands. Connie Monson came to tea. Evensong. Hughie & Chris went to the Spa to see 'The man from Blankley's'.
