

Reverend Arthur Tidman 1792-1868

Born November 14th, 1792. Died March 8th, 1868

Great-grandfather of Torla Mackarness nee Tidman.

Congregational missionary, diplomat, minister at the Barbican Chapel of the Old Protestant Dissenters' Set in the City of London. Secretary of the Irish Environmental Society. Later served in the Foreign Secretariat of the London Missionary Society.

Married Anne Ryall; 5 children.

Buried in Abney Park Cemetery, Stoke Newington (Path A, 'Gothic baldaquin of white stone')

An internet search reveals that he once received a letter from David Livingstone, then travelling in Africa.

Internet searches also find the following books:

1. In Loving Remembrance of the Rev. Arthur Tidman, D.D. for 27 Years Foreign Secretary of the London Missionary Society:
2. Ministerial perseverance : a charge, delivered at the settlement of the Rev. Arthur Tidman, over the church assembling in Barbican, London, on the 8th of January, MDCCCXXIX

Author: Andrew Reed

Publisher: London : Westley and Davis, 1829.

3. A sermon, delivered at the settlement of the Rev. Arthur Tidman, as Pastor of the congregation of Protestant dissenters, meeting in Endless-Street Chapel, Salisbury, on Thursday, April the 6th, 1815.

Author: William Jay

Publisher: Bath : the Author, [1815]